C.F.L. COACHES AT LOYOLA CLINIC

The Third Annual Loyola Bilingual Football Coaching School will have an impressive array of Football experts as speakers.

The four Head Coaches in the Eastern C.F.L., Ralph Sazio, Leo Cahill, Frank Clair and Kay Dalton are the headliners of the Clinics set for Saturday, February 17 and Saturday, February 24.

There will be fourteen hours of technical, practical and theoretical football sessions commencing at 9:00 a.m. each Saturday in Loyola's F.C. Smith Auditorium.

All High School, Junior and Minor league coaches and physical education teachers and pupils in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec are invited to attend.

A special effort is being made to encourage French Canadian instructors to attend the beneficial course. Simultaneous translation into French will be provided by Loyola via head sets from the University's Language Laboratory. Registration for the classes will start at 8:15 A.M.

A Loyola Athletic Department spokesman stated, "We are especially grateful to Ralph Sazio, Leo Cahill, Frank Clair, and Kay Dalton and their respective clubs and our other distinguished guest lecturers for consenting to gratuitously assist us in this very worthwhile project."

The complete curriculum is as follows:
